THE ISLAND
GOLF CLUB

Caul's View
Dedicated to the memory of Paddy Caul, Head Greenkeeper who tended these links from 1949 - 1992

The Island Golf Club

MALAHIDE

It has been thought desirable to make the following Regulations concerning the Club Boats:—

(1) A Boat will, if required, leave for the Island every hour and half-hour between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., returning at once. Should, however, not less than six people desire to be taken to the Island at any other time they will be brought over, provided a Boat be available.

(2) On Holidays and Competition Days the Boat-men will, as heretofore, do their best to facilitate all players in getting to and from the Island.

(3) On Sundays no Boat will cross earlier than 10.30 a.m. except by arrangement or at 1.30 or 2.

NOTE—The Boat-men have authority to alter the times of departure and return so as to meet the convenience of train passengers.

Fixture—May 21st: Mixed Foursome Competition (Semi-Open).

Subscriptions and Locker Rents were due and payable on 1st April.

J. R. BLOOD, Hon. Sec.,
Ballykilty,
Malahide.

May, 1921.

Island Golf Club, Malahide.

The next monthly mixed foursome competition will be played on Saturday, 30th December, 1905. Miss G. Martin has kindly promised to give tea, and Messrs. H. M. P. Hare and G. S. Kinahan are giving prizes for the ladies.

Players can arrange their own opponents, and post entries will be accepted.

Competition by strokes. Only the better score at each hole of the two pairs playing together to count. One-fourth of the aggregate handicaps of the four players to be deducted from the total score so arrived at. The two pairs making together the best net return to play at a subsequent date an 18 hole match on handicap, to determine which shall take first and which second prizes.

There will be an informal Mixed Foursome 'Sweep' v Bogey on S. Stephen's Day, 26 inst.

The next ladies medal will be played for on 3rd January, 1906.

10a Russell Street, Dublin.

ISLAND GOLF CLUB.

The Leinster Golf Clubs having undertaken to assist in the entertainment of Wounded Soldiers, the Island Club has arranged to have weekly afternoon tea parties for them at the Club House. Subscriptions, use of motors, and personal help on the days fixed will be most welcome.

The first party will be on Friday, 18th instant.

The following will act as a Committee, and will gladly receive subscriptions, or offers of help, and give any required information :—

MRS. GERALD FITZGIBBON	MISS J. F. WALSH
MRS. H. H. BISHOP	MRS. J. R. BLOOD
H. H. BISHOP	J. R. BLOOD, Hon. Sec.

Home-made bread, cakes, jam, sweets, and cigarettes would be gratefully received.

14th June, 1915

ISLAND GOLF CLUB.

The next Mixed Foursome Competition will be played on 30th December, under usual conditions. Mrs. J. H. Campbell has kindly promised to give tea, and Messrs. H. Dodd and G. H. Brett are giving prizes for the ladies.

On Tuesday, 26th December, there will be two men's competitions, viz.:—an 18 Hole Bogey Competition in the morning, for prizes presented by the Club, and in the afternoon a 9 Hole "Sweep" by strokes, both under handicap. Post entries, 2/- for each event; players to arrange their own opponents. These events will be open to members of the Club, to sons of members, and to visitors stopping with members.

Subscriptions to the Xmas Box Fund for the employés (limited to 5/- for men and 2/6 for ladies) will be received by Messrs. H. H. Bishop, F. C. Crawley, Miss J. F. Walsh, and the Hon. Sec. A list of subscriptions received will be posted in the Club House.

J. R. BLOOD,
Hon. Sec.,
10a Russell St.,
Dublin.

1st December, 1911.

THE ISLAND GOLF CLUB

Golfers travelled by boat from Malahide to The Island from 1890 until 1973.
The steps and foundations of the old clubhouse are part of this tee.