Nelson Mandela meets with Ernie Els and Tiger Woods
during the 2003 Presidents Cup

Fancourt, George, South Africa

"Sport has the power to unite people in a way that little else can.
It can create hope where once there was only despair.
It breaks down racial barriers.
It laughs in the face of discrimination.
Sport speaks to people in a language they can understand."

~Nelson Mandela~

THE LINKS

You must never get mad at The Links. You must be willing to accept exactly what you get. Then you must keep on trying. Keep a clear mind all the time. For there are so many humps and hollows that it is easy to allow your mind to become tangled with frustration. Once you start seeking excuses, The Links has got you beat.

It is no good saying that this or that is a silly hole. It is no good questioning why a hump should be here. Once you do that you can seriously forget your chances of playing well. The Links must be treated sympathetically. Do not try to fight it, try to understand it.
